1. The Cultural and Educational Affairs Section (文教部)¹ of the Amoy Municipal Military Affairs Commission recently has undertaken an expanded mail propaganda campaign among overseas Chinese in Southeast Asia. The materials used in this campaign have included printed matter and other information which are included in personal letters addressed to relatives and friends in Southeast Asia by Chinese residents of the Amoy area.
2. Mailing lists have been compiled following consultations with Amoy residents who are known to have family members or acquaintances who live in Southeast Asia, as well as from advertisements appearing in Chinese vernacular papers published in Southeast Asia. Some of the propaganda is mailed in Hong Kong, and the remainder in Amoy.
3. The principal themes of this propaganda are designed to persuade the recipients to oppose the governments of the countries in which they reside.
